

THE POTTERS WHEEL WORLD SCHOOL

Summative Assessment - I

Subject: GK

Duration 1.5 hours

Class 7

Total : 50

Section A

1X8 = 8

Read these sentences about countries, cities and geographical features of the Mediterranean region. Read the clues and use the help box to find the answers.

1. In the Mediterranean Sea, you find this island country whose flag bears its map.
.....
2. The straits at the western end of the Mediterranean Sea, through which it joins the Atlantic Ocean.
3. The capital of Lebanon, which was called 'Paris of the Middle East', due to its cultural richness and liveliness.
4. The capital of Syria, this is the oldest continuously inhabited city in the world. Drop here...
5. The largest island in the Mediterranean, infamous for its organised criminal network called the Mafia.
6. This North African country gets its name from its capital, which has existed since the 6th century BCE as the site of the ancient city of Carthage.
7. The peninsula inhabited since prehistoric times, where the Greek War of Independence began in 1821, as did the ancient Olympic Games in 776 BCE.
8. A Macedonian conqueror founded this Egyptian city, which became famous for the Lighthouse of Pharos, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.
.....

Section B

1X6 = 6

They say fashions come and go but style is forever. Let us get style-wise!

1. The term meaning 'high fashion' - used for clothes that are custom-tailored for people.
.....
2. The first 'designer' to have his own label sewn on to the clothes he made.
.....
3. A very short article of dress, introduced by Mary Quant in the 1960s.
4. The unstructured look of the 1920s for women, in contrast to the earlier elaborate Edwardian designs.
5. Popular in the 1970s, pants with very wide flaring cuffs; back in fashion now and then.
.....

6. Ready-to-wear clothes that can be bought in stores and worn, without any alteration.
.....

Section C

1X6 = 6

You have all heard folk tales sometime or the other, from your parents, grandparents and teachers or have seen them on TV. You may have read them in books. How many do you remember?

1. Fables by this ancient Greek slave-storyteller left a mark on us. From The Lion and The Mouse, we learnt how to be large-hearted and grateful. From The Tortoise and The Hare, we learnt how not to be overconfident! Who was this wise fabulist?
.....
2. Baital Pacchisi is a collection of 25 stories that the vampire-like, tree-dwelling Baital/Vetal apparently narrated to the king who tried to capture him. Who was this legendary king?
3. We all are familiar with stories of Cinderella, The Sleeping Beauty and The Frog Prince. Wilhelm and Jacob, popular as the Brothers Grimm, collected these folktales from across Europe. What was their nationality?
4. Which popular folktales of the Indian subcontinent tell fascinating tales of previous births of Gautama Buddha, in both human and animal forms?
5. Which legendary Chinese warrior, skilled at kung fu and swordplay, disguised herself as a man and went to serve in the army instead of her father?
6. Which popular Japanese folk hero was said to have come to Earth in a giant peach and adopted by a childless couple who found the peach floating in a river?
.....

Section D

2X5 = 10

Colours and lights. Sweets and snacks. Fun and laughter. Indian festivals are awesome!

1. During the festival of the state of Gujarat erupts in a nine-night dance festival with people gathering to dance the garba.
2. In the state of, Bihu is observed three times: (i) when farmers sow the seeds, (ii) when sowing is completed and farmers pray for a good crop, and (iii) when harvesting is under way.
3. It is said that was first celebrated in Ladakh in the 17th century by King Jamyang Namgyal to mark the arrival of the New Year.
4. The famed Kullu Dussehra of Himachal Pradesh began with the arrival of a statue of Lord to the kingdom of Raja Jagat Singh in the 17th century.

5. The tribe of Nagaland celebrates the harvest festival of Sekrenyi ('sanctification') in February with much feasting, hunting, dancing and singing.

Section E

2X10 = 20

What a magnificent dynasty the Mughals were! Their legacy of art and architecture still inspires. Read the clues and use the help box to find the answers.

1. Buland Darwaza, the world's highest gateway built by Akbar in 1567, marked the entrance to this Mughal capital
2. Founded by the Pandavas, this city saw three historic battles, with the first two won by the Mughals
3. Emperor Bahadur Shah Zafar spent his last days here, after the British crushed the uprising of 1857
4. The Gardens of Babur, the final resting place of the founder of the Mughal empire, are located in this capital city
5. The terraced Shalimar Gardens, fed by water from the Dal lake, are located in Jahangir's summer capital
6. Capital of the richest princely state that broke away from the Mughal empire; ruled by a Nizam till 1948
7. Often confused with the Taj Mahal, Bibi Ka Maqbara, built by Aurangzeb's son Azam Shah, stands here
8. At this mountain pass named for its yellow soil, Maharana Pratap fought an iconic battle against the Mughals
9. Home to Jahangir's tomb and Aurangzeb's famed Badshahi Mosque, this city was briefly the Mughal capital
10. In 1639, the fifth emperor founded this capital, which remained the seat of Mughal power till its end [Red Fort]