

Class 6

1. This mammal has long spikes called quills, which can be used to shoot at its predators
.....
2. Mammals have hair or
3. Mammals are blooded.
4. Which animal, of the Bubalus genus, was tamed way back in the Harappan era? There are records of it being traded by the 'Meluhhas' with Mesopotamian cities!
.....
5. Which species, whose scientific name is Bos grunniens, can live very easily in the high Himalayas because it has larger-than-average lungs?
6. In which Indian state were ponies with stamina bred for use in war as well as the game of sagolkangjei, which developed into modern polo?
7. The of Sumatra, the world's tallest and heaviest flower, can grow up to 3 metres tall. It smells of rotting meat. Ugh! (5, 4)
8. The Rafflesia arnoldii is called the It has the largest flowers, which can grow up to 1 metre in diameter. (8, 6)
9. Nepenthes is another plant that eats insects by drowning them and digesting them in a bulb full of enzymes with no escape routeing. It is commonly called the plant. (7)
10. Which twin brothers does Alice meet during her adventures in Through The Looking Glass when she is trying to win the game of chess against the Red Queen?
.....
11. What fictional bird, which could mimic any tune and was used by Rue and Katniss to signal each other in the arena, became the symbol of rebellion in the Hunger Games trilogy?
12. Remember Roald Dahl's Matilda, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Fantastic Mr Fox? In which of his stories is the protagonist mistreated by aunts Spiker and Sponge?
.....
13. Huckleberry Finn's partner-in crime, this mischievous school boy, tricks his friends into doing the chores that are his punishment!
14. Author of the heart-rending autobiography The Diary of a Young Girl, which are horrors that the Jews suffered during World War II
15. The pig who befriends the spider in Charlotte's Web and teaches her to be compassionate towards animals and humans alike
16. What is the name of the white dog who accompanies Tintin on his adventures?
.....
17. What is the name of the mouse who is a brave knight in the Chronicles of Narnia series?
.....
18. What is the title of the book that features the toad dressed in a coat and hat?
.....
19. American star who won the track & field Big 4 in Los Angeles 1984
.....
20. Sergei Bubka won only one Olympic gold, but broke the world record 35 times in this event

21. The first man to win the track & field Big 4 at the Berlin Olympics
22. The home of cricket in India, in the City of Joy
23. The most prestigious arena in tennis, a part of London
24. The distinctive red clay courts here are home to the French Open tennis tournament
25. The men's cricket world cup was held before the first women's cricket World Cup.
26. Cricket has featured in the Olympics only once
27. The first Indian company to sponsor the men's World Cup was Tata
28. The original Indian "Wall", who guided India to victory in the West Indies against the greatest pace attack ever
29. The most prolific of batters, this "Master" scored 199 centuries in his career of 61,760. First-Class runs
30. Like lightning in the field, he inspired teammates with his athletic ability; the best 12th man by a stretch
31. A large part of the Harappa archaeological site was damaged in 1857 when British engineers used the bricks from there to lay railway tracks! Which two places were they trying to connect?
32. Which coastal site, discovered in 1960, has a name that means, sort of, 'burnt hill'?
33. Which town in south Gujarat, now abandoned, was a thriving trade centre in Harappan times and is home to the world's oldest known dock?
34. Ashoka's grandfather was another legendary emperor named
35. In his edicts, some of which have lasted till today, Ashoka is referred to as
36. The historic city of, later renamed as Patna by Sher Shah Suri, was Ashoka's capital.
37. Born Lhamo Thondup in Tibet; took the name Tenzin Gyatso; spiritual leader of Tibetan Buddhists; the 14th in his line
38. Legendary Chinese teacher and philosopher; emphasised morality, justice and sincerity; taught the Golden Rule: "Do not do to others what you do not want done to yourself"
39. German professor and priest; key figure in the Protestant Reformation in 16th century Europe; don't confuse him with the American civil rights activist!
40. What was created initially as a teach-in on 22 April 1970 by Senator Gaylord Nelson in the USA, and has been celebrated across the world since then?
41. The Javan species of this large herbivore is one of the animals closest to extinction, with less than 60 of them left in the wild! Can you name this gentle giant?

42. In 1989, nearly 200 nations signed the Montreal Protocol and agreed to reduce CFC levels in the atmosphere to protect a layer of oxygen that protects earth from harmful ultraviolet rays. Name the layer
43. A is a very rare and gigantic explosion that happens in the final stages of the life of a massive star.
44. A Latin word meaning 'cloud', a is the 'birthplace of stars', filled with interstellar dust and light gases like hydrogen and helium.
45. Sharing its name with a Harry Potter character who actually bullied Severus Snape, or Dog Star, is the brightest star in the night sky.
46. Also the name of a popular American TV show, the is the most widely accepted explanation of how our universe began.
47. The banana tree converts energy into carbohydrates.
48. The hungry monkey consumes the energy stored in the carbohydrates in banana fruit.
49. The energy is transferred from the fruit to the monkey's muscles, which contract to convert it into energy.
50. As the happy monkey swings through the air, the energy transforms into energy. Whoosh!