

Class 7

1. The largest of the big cats in the Americas, which species was worshiped as a symbol of strength and royalty by the Mayans and Aztecs?..... .
2. Scientifically named Neofelis nebulosa, which is the smallest of the big cats, found across the lower Himalayas through Indo-China?..... .
3. To protect which animal as a shared cultural and environmental symbol, did 12 countries sign the Bishkek Declaration in 2013?..... .
4. After which animal, also called catamount or cougar, did Rudolf Dassler name his company, formed after he split with his brother Adolf in 1948?..... .
5. The closest extant relatives of which large cats, found in Africa and Asia, are the American puma and jaguarundi?..... .
6. Larvae of frogs and toads, which metamorphose into the adult forms
..... .
7. The Latin word for 'toad'
8. This order of amphibians has no ribs; members resemble worms when small and snakes when larger
9. The largest species of any amphibious order, it is called a living fossil, and can grow up to 1.8 m in length and 65 kg in weight
10. Which tiger and elephant reserve in Assam, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and home to species like the Golden Langur and Pygmy Hog, is named after a snake goddess?
..... .
11. Which national park was once a forest named after Draupadi, wife of the Pandavas? It was the subject of public protests against the construction of a power plant that would destroy the area's ecology
12. Pele was nicknamed 'Black Diamond' for his awesome footballing skills
..... .
13. The Galloping Major, Ferenc Puskas, was declared the top goal scorer of the 20th century
14. It's called chedugudu in Andhra Pradesh and sadugudu in TamilNadu. It has versions called amar and sanjeevani. It was demonstrated at the 1936 Berlin Olympics
..... .
15. It is commonly called pitthu in North India, satoliya in Rajasthan, and lagori in Maharashtra. In which part of North India is this game of accuracy called garmaan?..... .
16. From fables like The Caterpillar Who Went On A Diet to romances like What Lies Between Two Hearts?, he writes "for everyone from age 10 to 100!"
..... .
17. This writer-illustrator brings Indian mythology to life with books like Shyam, Pashu, Hanuman's Ramayana and Fun in Devlok
18. This very young, very curious investigative reporter travels around the world with his best friend Captain Haddock and pet dog, Snowy (6)
19. This goofy character wants to overthrow King Vikram Singh and is known as King of Comedy or Hasya Samrat because he is, well, rather silly and comical. (8)
..... .

20. This month is named after the Roman god of beginnings and doors. Sure enough, it marks the beginning of the year according to the Gregorian calendar!
.....
21. The Greeks call this small furry animal skiouros, which translates to 'shadow tail'. A fitting description for a rodent who holds its tail over its back like a sunshade!
.....
22. What does the word 'Mesopotamia' actually mean?
23. Like Egyptian hieroglyphs, is one of the earliest forms of pictorial writing, created by the Sumerians. The name means 'wedge-shaped' due to the shape of the symbols
24. Who was this Royal New Zealand Air Force pilot and navigator who suffered serious injuries in World War II but is best remembered for a mountaineering feat?
.....
25. About which intergovernmental peace organisation, founded after World War I, did the Italian founder of fascism Benito Mussolini say: "Very well when sparrows shout but no good at all when eagles fall out"?
26. She succeeded her brother Ruknuddin Firuz as the Sultan of Delhi
.....
27. In 1504, Sikander Lodi made this city his capital; it was later named Akbarabad during the Mughal reign
28. This minister presents the annual budget in Parliament every year(7)
.....
29. This Prime Minister introduced Corporate Tax in the budget he presented as Finance Minister (5,6)
30. The Constitution of India was adopted by the Constituent Assembly on 26 November 1949 but the motion came into effect on 26 January 1950
31. We will not discriminate on grounds of religion, race, caste, gender or place of birth
.....
32. In a , the government is formed by the people who elect their representatives through elections
33. When the military seizes power to rule a country and takes over all government offices, then it is known as a military
34. Tagore called this monu 'a teardrop on the face of times'
35. World-famous for its cave art, it is the oldest human habitation in India
.....
36. Bonjour, mon nom est Pierre! Language
Primary area
37. Nomoshkar, amar naam Madhumita.
Language
Primary area
38. Once every 12 years, the famed Kumbh Mela is held here on the banks of the Godavari river (6)
39. This talented batter was the first Indian to hit the first ball he faced in a T20 International for a six! (10,5)

40. Of which language was Nongkit Khubor ('The Messenger'), brought out by the missionary William Williams in 1889, the first published journal?
41. Which part of the body do Apatani women of Arunachal Pradesh beautify with a yapping hurlo?
42. Folk dance, involving the worship of Shiva and Parvati, which claims descent from mock fights practised by Odia warriors (5)
43. Dance-drama based on plays written in Brajavali, the Maithili-Assamese language blend made by polymath Srimanta Sankaradeva (5,4)
44. Sole surviving Sanskrit theatre form, performed by Chakyar men and Nangyar women; its name means 'dancing together' and belongs to Kerala (11)
45. Home state of saang folk dance drama, featuring loud theatrics, mimicry and dialogue (7)
46. In Rabindranath Tagore's poem Taal Gach, a tree wants to soar above the clouds! Which multipurpose fruit, called tari in Hindi and made into sweets in Bengal, does this tree bear
47. Which fruit, rich in Vitamin C, is used to make the Ayurvedic tonic Chyawanprash? It is said to have been prepared for sage Chyawan by the Ashvins, physicians to the gods
48. Its scientific name is Carissa carandas. It is used to make pickles, relishes and jams. It is often called India's cranberry. Name the fruit
49. Which fruit, consumed to control diabetes, lends its name to the innermost of the seven island-continent that make up the universe, as per Hindu cosmology?
50. Which deep purple, caterpillar-like fruit has a name derived from the Persian for 'king of berries'