

Class 8

1. The first woman and the first civilian to go into space in 1963.
2. The Space race was the 20th century rivalry between the USSR and the USA to be the first in space! When the USSR took the lead with Sputnik 1 and 2, the US launched this, its first satellite
3. This very vital space observatory is named for an American astronomer who discovered that the universe is constantly expanding
4. Launched in 1977 and now around 2.22×10^{10} km from Earth, this spacecraft is the farthest manmade object from Earth
5. In July 2015, this spacecraft became the first to explore the dwarf planet Pluto
6. After resigning from Thomas Edison's company in 1885, he became a pioneer of alternating currents and induction motors, fluorescent lamps, radio and limitless free energy projects. He has over 300 patents to his name, and is regarded as one of Edison's greatest rivals
7. Founder of the world's largest maker of vertical transportation systems (elevators), he shot to fame after inventing a mechanism to lock the car in place if the ropes failed. He also patented a steam plough, a rotatory oven and the oscillating steam engine
8. First detected on 14 September 2015, these phenomena were predicted by Albert Einstein in his theory of general relativity. A system of mirrors and lasers, to observe minute disturbances in reflections, helped detect these
9. Known for her work on Charles Babbage's analytical engine, this British mathematician designed the first ever algorithm for a machine, and is known as the first computer programmer
10. The response, accompanied by increased heartbeat, dilated pupils and a sudden burst of energy, is our body's response to any situation we think might be a threat.
11. With a name derived from the Latin for 'snail shell', the is a spiral-shaped, fluid-filled tube that contains the main sensory organ for hearing.
12. Part-Australian and part-Indian, he made news by winning the Man Booker Prize in 2008 for his debut novel, The White Tiger
13. Daughter of another famous author, she won the Man Booker Prize in 2006 for her second novel The Inheritance of Loss. She earlier authored Hullabaloo In The Guava Orchard. (5,5)
14. When Chacha Chaudhary's sidekick, the gigantic alien Sabu gets angry, a volcano erupts somewhere on his home planet(7).
15. The typical American small town where Archie Andrews lives and has his adventures (9)
16. The hero goes on a quest to discover the secret of immortality, and enemies become friends in this earliest work of literature from Mesopotamia. The Epic of HIMLEGGAS.
17. Hero of the Geats, slayer of dragon and monster F O U L W E B is the protagonist of this eponymous epic, which Tolkien in fact called an elegy.

18. Which board game originated when Elizabeth Phillips created it to explain the single tax theory of Henry George and illustrate the negative aspects of the system where landholding is concentrated with a few people?
19. How many different coloured marbles or pegs are used in a regular game of Chinese Checkers, which was actually created in Germany in the late 19th century?.....
20. The 'best play' by both players in this game usually ends in a draw. Its familiar 3x3 grid may be scribbled on the back of a school kid's notebook but it is also used to teach artificial intelligence!
21. In this murder mystery game made by Hasbro, players must figure out who murdered the victim Dr Black, where, and with what weapon
22. Eukonkanto is said to have originated in Finland and legend has it that a robber named Herkko Rosvo-Ronkainen and his gang started it. It is commonly called
23. is an extreme sport where a personal jet-ski is attached with a long pipe to a board with pedal controls; the contestant can 'fly' in the air as well as dive into the water.
24. A five-star general in the US Army during World War II and Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces in Europe, he planned the successful invasion of France and Germany in 1944-45. (10)
25. The Secret Service's name for the Presidential state car, equipped with special night vision, blood bank and extremely strong armour. (3,5)
26. This 1955 defence treaty between the Soviet Union and seven other Central and Eastern European states, planned to counter American power in the region, ended in 1991.
W P
27. Home to the infamous Chernobyl nuclear power plant, this is the largest country entirely within Europe. U
28. Name this flower. It lends its name to an iconic 1757 battle between the British East India Company and the joint forces of Nawab Siraj-ud-Daulah and the French
29. Atop which monument dedicated to the first 'Empress of India' would you find this bronze statue?
30. (across) President Salva Kiir Mayardit leads this African nation, the world's youngest sovereign state, having gained independence in 2011 (5,5) (down) One of the world's youngest state leaders, Finland's Prime Minister describes herself as hailing from a 'rainbow family' (5,5)
31. Topper of the Forbes 'List of World's Most Powerful Women' a record nine times, she was also Time 'Person of the Year' in 2015 (6,6)
32. I'm a cool microblogging site where, on your handle, you 'tweet' what you feel about any issue and #tag the keywords. If people like it, they 'retweet'. Then more people read it and some even 'follow' you!
33. You will need me as you grow up and look for internships, projects, jobs. I'm a business networking site and I help people connect with each other to hire or get hired. You can create a profile and when you land that job, people 'congratulate' you!

.....

34. Pioneered by Mahatma Gandhi first in South Africa and then in India, this can be loosely translated as 'insistence on truth'
35. This name is now synonymous with social campaigns to advocate environmental protection, especially tree conservation; pioneered by Amrita Devi of the Bishnoi community
36. Most marsupials are found in the continent of.....
37. The, the only marsupial found in North America above Mexico, gets its name from the state named in honour of Queen Elizabeth I.
38. Founded by Canadian activists, originally as a protest against nuclear weapon testing off the Alaskan coast, the most visible NGO (10)
39. Emblem of the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF), founded in 1961 to help conserve world biodiversity (5,5)
40. Beep, Beep!" went this Plymouth speedster
41. Fastest falcon flying in from the Land of the Rising Sun
42. first Indian cricketer, an Uttarakhandi, to score a century in the Indian Premier League (6,6)
43. Chhattisgarhi ballad singing style, featuring tales from and characters of Mahabharata (9)
44. venue of the confluence, or Triveni Sangam, of the three holy rivers of Chhattisgarh-Mahanadi, Pairi, Sondur (5)
45. The only tiger reserve in the state of Jharkhand (7)
46. Built in 1591 CE by Quli Qutb Shah, this landmark is featured on the seal of Telangana (9)
47. Annual festival celebrated in Telangana involving a 'meal' offered to Goddess Kali (6)
48. On his 125th birthday, Jharkhand was carved out from Bihar and officially became India's 28th state (5,5)
49. Uttarakhand is also known as, due to the large number of places of worship and pilgrimage centres it is home to (9)
50. Built across the Mahanadi river, this dam is the longest in Chhattisgarh (7)