

THE POTTERS WHEEL WORLD SCHOOL

Summative Assessment - I

Subject: GK

Duration 1.5 hours

Class 5

Total : 50

Section A

1X5 = 5

When you switch on the fan, do you wonder who made the fan, the switch to put it on, and the electricity to run it with? Let's learn about the genius minds who invented and discovered things that make our lives easier!

1. Which famous astronomer, the first to state that the universe is still expanding, also gives his name to a famous space telescope?
2. What did the Wright brothers name their creation, the first heavier-than-air aircraft to fly?
3. Irish engineer John Holland designed Holland I, the first to be officially commissioned by the US Navy as well as the Royal Navy.
4. Invented in the 1st century AD, the aeolipile (named for the Greek god of air and wind), also known as Hero engine for its inventor, was the world's first recorded
5. Which Renaissance man, deservedly the 'father of modern physics', is credited with discovering Jupiter's four largest moons through his telescope?

Section B

1X5 = 5

When you hear nice music, don't you wonder which instrument makes it so melodious? Let's check your music quotient... Pick the answers from the help box.

1. Called peti or baja in some parts of India, which common instrument accompanies devotional singers of bhajans or qawwalis?
2. Classical musician Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia plays a bamboo instrument, often associated with Lord Krishna. Name it.
3. Which instrument is a set of 16 to 22 bowls filled with water, placed in a semi-circle, and struck with sticks to produce notes?

4. In mythology, Ravana was so adept at playing this instrument that it featured on his battle flag! Which instrument is this, used in Carnatic and Hindustani music?
.....
5. Similar to a shehnai, which wind instrument is played at South Indian weddings and in temples, with instruments like ottu and thavil?

Section C

1X10 = 10

Here's a brain-tickler of a set on some of India's splendid Union Territories. Read the statements and pick the correct answer from the help box.

1. To which isolated island of the Andaman & Nicobar group did British Administrator M.M.V. Portman make the first recorded visit in 1880? The people of this island are known to be quite angry and not very welcoming!
2. According to the Tanjore inscription of 1050 AD, by what name did the Chola kings refer to the Nicobar Islands?
3. What 'nationalist' names did Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose give to the Andaman and Nicobar islands?
4. On which island of the Lakshadweep group would you hear the Mahi language, similar to Dvivehi spoken in The Maldives?
5. According to legend, from which island-part of the Lakshadweep group-did Sheikh Mohammad Kasim Walliwullah banish crows?
6. Which group of native people, whose name literally means 'hostile people', say that they descended from the now-extinct Jangil tribe?
7. This tribe is known for its interesting paintings made with rice paste on cloth. This tribe is the largest community in Dadra and Nagar Haveli, which was once under Portuguese rule.
8. Every year, in January, in which Union Territory is the International Yoga Festival celebrated? Drop here...
9. In which former French colony, now part of Puducherry, will you find a unique temple dedicated to Sri Saneeswara (Saturn)?
10. The first part of this Oscar-winning film-based on a Man Booker winning book-is set in Puducherry. Name the film.

Section D

2X9 = 18

Apart from the oxygen, the rainfall, the shade, the greenery, the habitats that they give us, plants and trees also provide some other products that we need in our daily lives. Read these tricky statements and pick the right answers from the help box.

1. Megasthenes thought that this was "wool growing on trees"!
2. Hooke found his 'cells' while looking at this bark.
3. Hair of the coconut gives many people a peaceful sleep.
4. Food of the gods, its beans were used as money by the Aztecs.
5. Juice of a Brazilian tree, it is 'Vulcanised' for better performance.
6. The golden fibres from this plant are mainly used in packaging.
7. You can crush its leaves to make a festive paste, favourite of brides.
8. This Chinese plant gives us the cup that cheers.
9. Wood and grasses are pulped to make this, so we can write and you can read this book!
.....

Section E

$$2 \times 6 = 12$$

Do you sometimes lie back on the grass and stare at the clouds above? Like cotton balls at times and like feathery sheets at others, these creations of condensation can take amazing shapes. Use the help box to fill in the blanks.

1. If we speak scientifically, a cloud is formed when millions of tiny droplets of water stick together in large groups in the air; is the name of this form of cloud.
2., the super-famous Greek thinker did one of the earliest studies of the earth's atmosphere and tried to explain what clouds were in his book titled Meteorologica.
3. You could say that clouds are 'puffy' and 'cotton-like'. They get their name from the Latin word for 'pile' or 'heap'.
4. are thin and wispy clouds found at the highest levels and get their name from the Latin word for a curling lock of hair.
5. clouds are huge and tall, and they usually bring rain. They are often called thunderstorm clouds.
6. These hazy, shapeless, greyish-whitish clouds cover the sky, and get the name from the Latin word for 'sheet' or 'layer'.